Dear [Redacted]

STATINTL

This is to let you know how much I enjoyed my visit to the Harvard Business School last Monday. I was very pleased to see how well you are getting along with your associates and professors in the PMD. I guess it was obvious that I felt rather comfortable in the academic environment although I must admit some frustration from having to keep my mouth closed.

After having heard the discussion in the afternoon class on Soviet economics, etc., I did offer to send the professor some unclassified material on the subject. Please pass the enclosed publications to him.

Thank you again for your hospitality. I really had a great time.

Sincerely,

STATINTL 617-

I talked to [] last night about the timing of a visit. The only time she said I should not come up is the week of 27-31 October. ~~xxxxxxgzzingxzx~~ Tentatively, we discussed my visiting either 17 or 21 November. (~~womlzz~~ I would spend the weekend in Providence and Boston visiting my mother and Suzanne.) we arrived at those dates because O'Donnell (the course director) wrote saying he STATINTL would like to have about two weeks notice. [] will call me at the office today if ~~in~~ either of those dates is not good.

~~xxxxxxgzzingxzx~~

STATINTL

So if we don't hear from [] by late afternoon today, I want to call O'donnell. I will offer him those dates as well as something earlier like 3 Nov. I also want to talk with Paul about the timing.

Dear Mr. Proctor:

Thank you for your May 12th letter concerning your impending visit to Harvard. You are welcome to visit the Program for Management Development at your convenience while the program is in session (September 14 - December 17). I suggest you contact me about two weeks prior to your visit and we can discuss the details of your day.

I appreciate your offer to speak to the class about the CIA and I will discuss the possibility with the Faculty. In any case, we should wait until PMD is in session in order to gauge the class interest for such an address. I will be able to give you an answer when you call to confirm your visit.

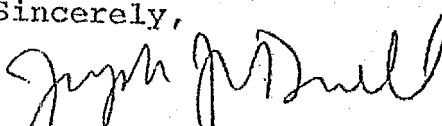

In your letter you mention Ms. [redacted] participation in the Fall PMD. I assume you know that [redacted] of the CIA has also been admitted to the Fall Session.

STATINTL

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. O'Donnell:

STATINTL

I was pleased to learn that [redacted] has been admitted to the Thirtieth Session of the Program for Management Development. With her background she should be able to make a unique contribution to the work of the class. You may be assured that she will be completely free of all job responsibilities while she is in the program. This is fully understood by her supervisors and her subordinates.

I would very much like to accept your invitation to visit you during the Thirtieth Session. If you think it appropriate, I am willing to address the participants and the faculty of the program about the functions and activities of the CIA. Please let me know whether you consider this appropriate and when it would be most convenient for me to visit.

Sincerely,

STATINTL

Dear Mr. Proctor:

The Admissions Committee has today notified your applicant of her acceptance to the Thirtieth Session of the Program for Management Development which commences on September 14, 1975. We are looking forward to her active participation in the work of this class. A copy of her admissions letter is enclosed for your records.

May we emphasize the need for your candidate to be completely free of all job responsibilities while she is here, and may we be certain that this has been or will be fully explained to her, her superiors, and her subordinates. It is our belief that her ability to benefit herself and your organization to the utmost from the program will depend on her being able to devote full time and attention to the program for the entire fourteen weeks. Moreover, it is important to the class groups to which she will be assigned that this be complied with. Accordingly, we stress the importance of each person being present at all classes during the program except, of course, for serious, unexpected emergencies.

We would be pleased to have you visit us during the course of the Thirtieth Session. We have found that it is of value to the individual while she is here as well as to her performance when she returns to have a senior spend at least a morning with us while the program is in session.

Sincerely,

Joseph J. O'Donnell
